Contents and Index of Volume 24, 1943

STATISTICAL BULLETIN

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company

CONTENTS

JANUARY	PAGE
Mortality Record for 1942	1
Military Deaths in 1942	4
Deaths from Exposure to Cold	8
Sudden Rise in the Birth Rate	9

FEBRUARY
Reduction in War Wound Fatalities	1
The Hospital's Place in the Public Health Program	3
The Foreign-Born Among Us	6
Few Women Killed in Occupational Accidents	9

MARCH
Health Progress Over Seventy-five Years	1
Our Changing Population—Looking Back Seventy-five Years	5
England's Birth and Health Record in 1942	7
Food Poisoning in Wartime	9

APRIL
Young Workers and War Jobs	1
Current Trends in Typhus Fever	3
American Longevity Continues to Increase	4
Recent Increase in Pneumonia Mortality	7
Mortality in the First Quarter of 1943	9

MAY
Wartime Trends in Tuberculosis	1
Geography, Too, Influences Marriages	3
Health of American School Children	6
Smallpox Rapidly Disappearing	8
High Toll of Civilian Drownings	9

JUNE
Health in American Army Camps	1
Summer Babies Are Best	3
Ideal Weights for Men	6
Accidents Kill More Workers Off the Job than On the Job	8

JULY	PAGE
America at War Continues in Good Health	1
What It Costs to Be Born	3
The Married Live Longer	5
Healthier Women—A Wartime Asset	6
War Cuts Motor Vehicle Accident Fatalities to 1922 Level	8

AUGUST
Longevity of Wage-Earners Increases in First Year of War	1
A Dividend of Two Million Babies in Ten Years	4
Maternal Mortality Drops Sharply	6
Cerebrospinal Meningitis in Wartime	8
George H. Van Buren (1874–1943)	10

SEPTEMBER
Will the Axis Resort to Gas Warfare?	1
Fatal Accidents in World War Years	3
Canadian Mortality in the War Years	5
The Cost of Feeding a Growing Child	7
Wartime Trends in Rheumatic Fever	9

OCTOBER
Good Health on the Home Front	1
Will Divorce Increase in the Postwar Years?	3
The Cost of Clothing and Sheltering a Growing Child	5
Dental Health a National Problem	7
Stillbirths Too Frequent	9

NOVEMBER
Robert Koch and the Conquest of Tuberculosis	1
The Cost of Bringing Up a Child	3
Death Toll From Burns at Record Low	6
Mortality Among Children With Rheumatic Fever	9

DECEMBER
Marriages on the Decline in 1943	1
Births and Deaths Increase in 1943	4
Fewer Fatal Accidents in 1943	5
Dependent Children and Age of Father	7
Infant Mortality Lowest in Large Cities	9